Herewini Murupaenga and Saana Murray take their seats as King and Queen at the Ngapuhi Kuia Kaumatua Ball. More than 300 people attended the evening of glitz and glamour at Henderson's Trusts Stadium. Special guests included National MP Pita Parone, Maori Party MP Hone Harawira, Waitakere city councillor Judy Lawley and mayor Bob Harvey.

Historic occasion: (top right)

Margaret Smitton cuts the tape to open the new all weather bowling greens at Henderson Bowling Club. She is flanked by Brian Lyths from the ASB Community Trust, left, and Warren Flaunty from the Waitakere Licensing Trust. Mrs Smitton was named Bowls NZ administrator of the year this month.

Double delight: (bottom right)

Tamara and Kiwi Court have two new daughters to add to the family. Abby and Elise were born on September 1 at Auckland Hospital. They are sisters for Hollie, 3, and weighed 2877grams and 2495grams (61b 50z and 51b 80z respectively).
